

The City of
OKLAHOMA CITY
MAYOR MICK CORNETT

Dear IAMC Member,

Oklahoma City is proud to host the fall meeting of the Industrial Asset Management Council and I invite you to visit our city and experience the remarkable renaissance occurring here today.

This is a proud city and emerging destination. With our newly granted big league status from the NBA, a multi-billion dollar downtown revitalization program and recession-proof economy (as identified by Forbes), this is a city where business and residents are thriving.

I look forward to sharing more with you over the next few months about this incredible city, and to meeting you personally when you see it all firsthand in September. Make plans to attend the conference now -- the lineup of sessions and speakers will deliver on the quality you expect from IAMC, and your experience in this city will do the same.

Sincerely,
